

Hine & Tū - Colouring in

Marriage was one way of attaining land. Tūtehurutira had played his hand perfectly. He married Hinerongo and they were given land at the Waiāu Toa. Show the beauty of these people and their whare using special colours to enhance their features.

Hine & Tū - Colouring in

Hinerongo's brother Te Aotaka and her cousin Paua reaffirmed her promise that Tūteurutira and the others would be safe. Look at their clothing. What colours will you choose for the hei tiki and the tā moko? The tā moko is on Tūteurutira's shoulder in the bottom left corner.

Hine & Tū - Colouring in

Hinerongo sat quietly in the waka as they paddled north until she looked back and saw Te Parinui o Whiti and Te Rae o Kōhaka receding in the distance. Select colours to show she was a person of high rank!

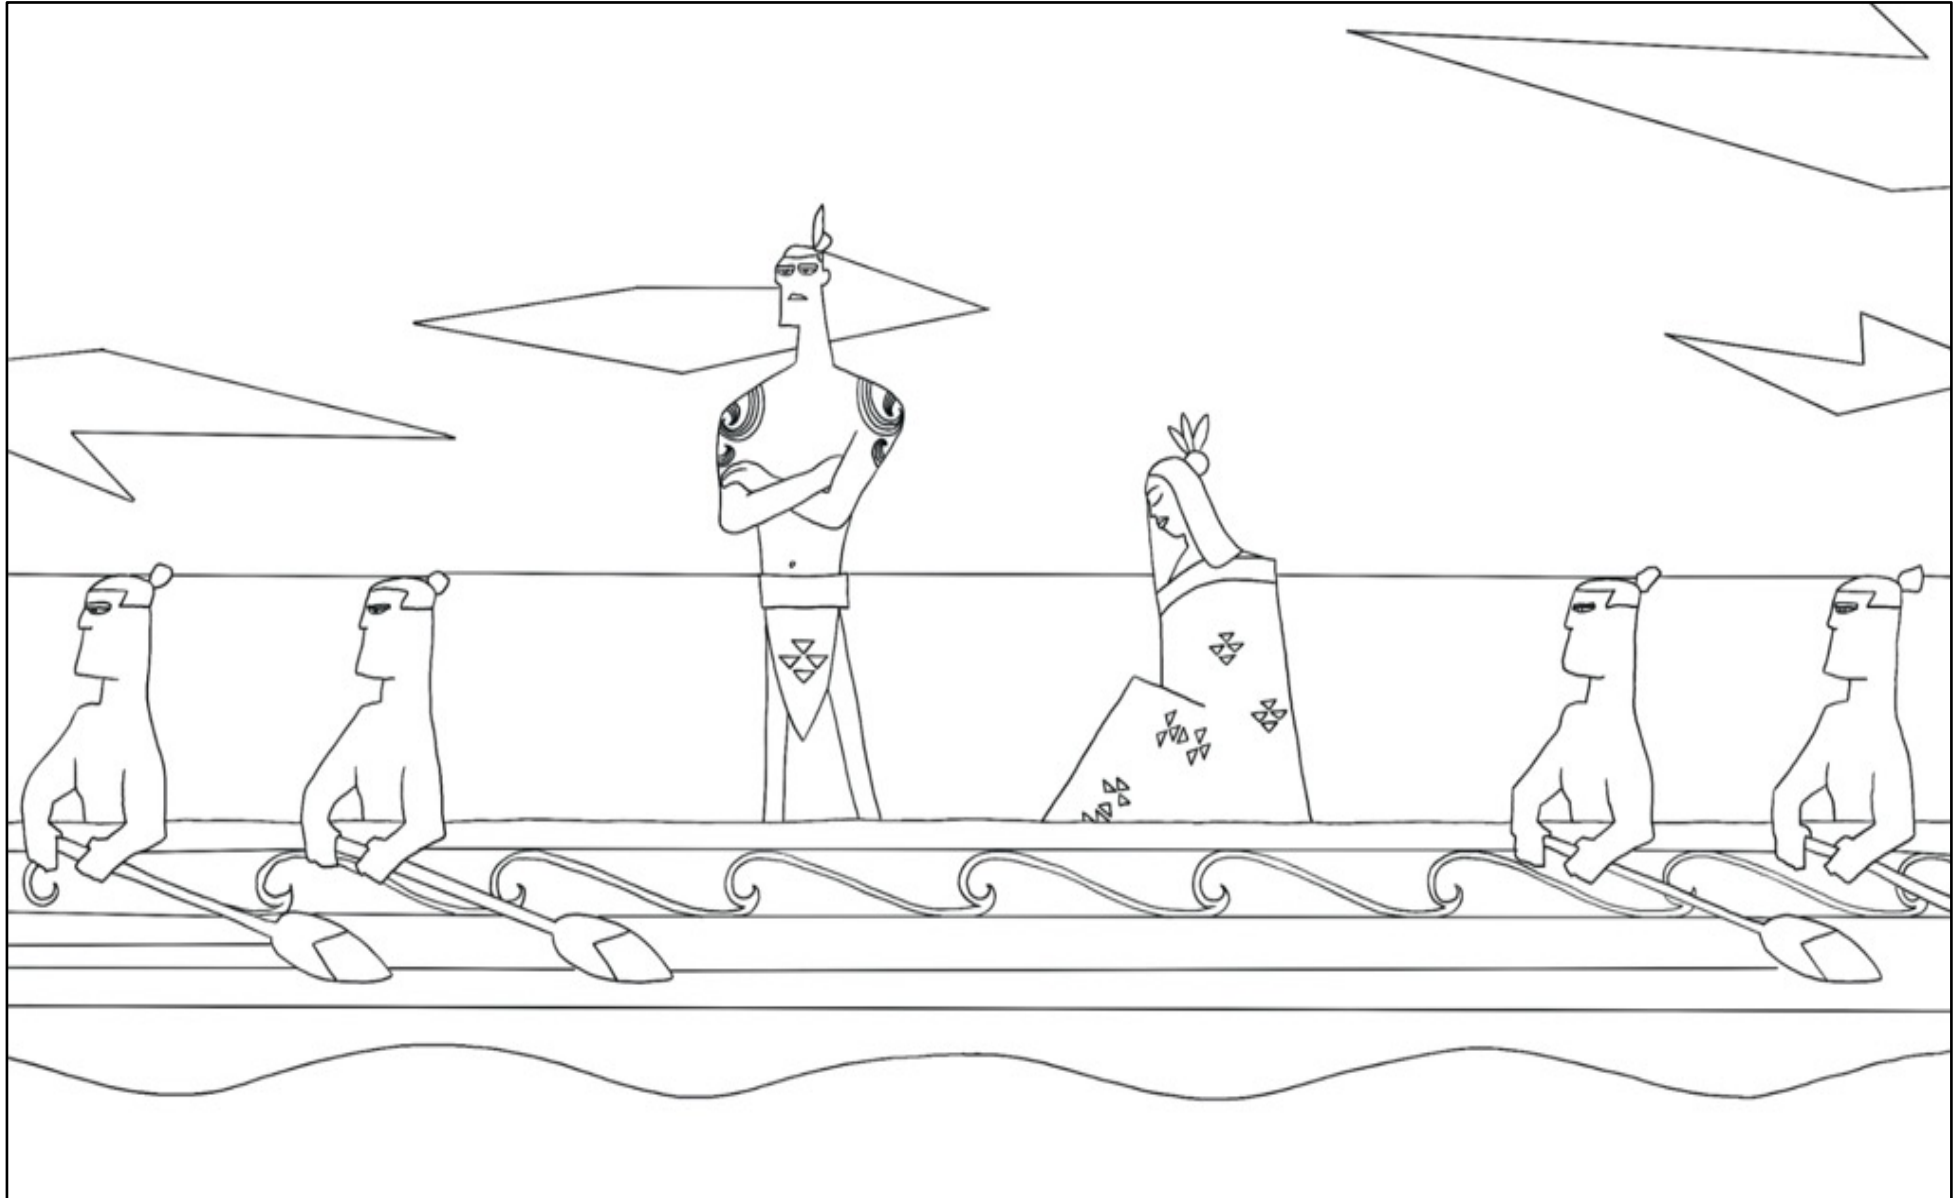

Hine & Tū - Colouring in

Ngāti Māmoe prepared kai for Tūteurutira and his Ngāti Kurī people.
How delicious. What is your favourite kai? Do you like kūmara, fish or meat?

Hine & Tū - Colouring in

Hinerongo has been taken captive. How is she feeling?
Choose colours to show her emotions and the mood at the time.

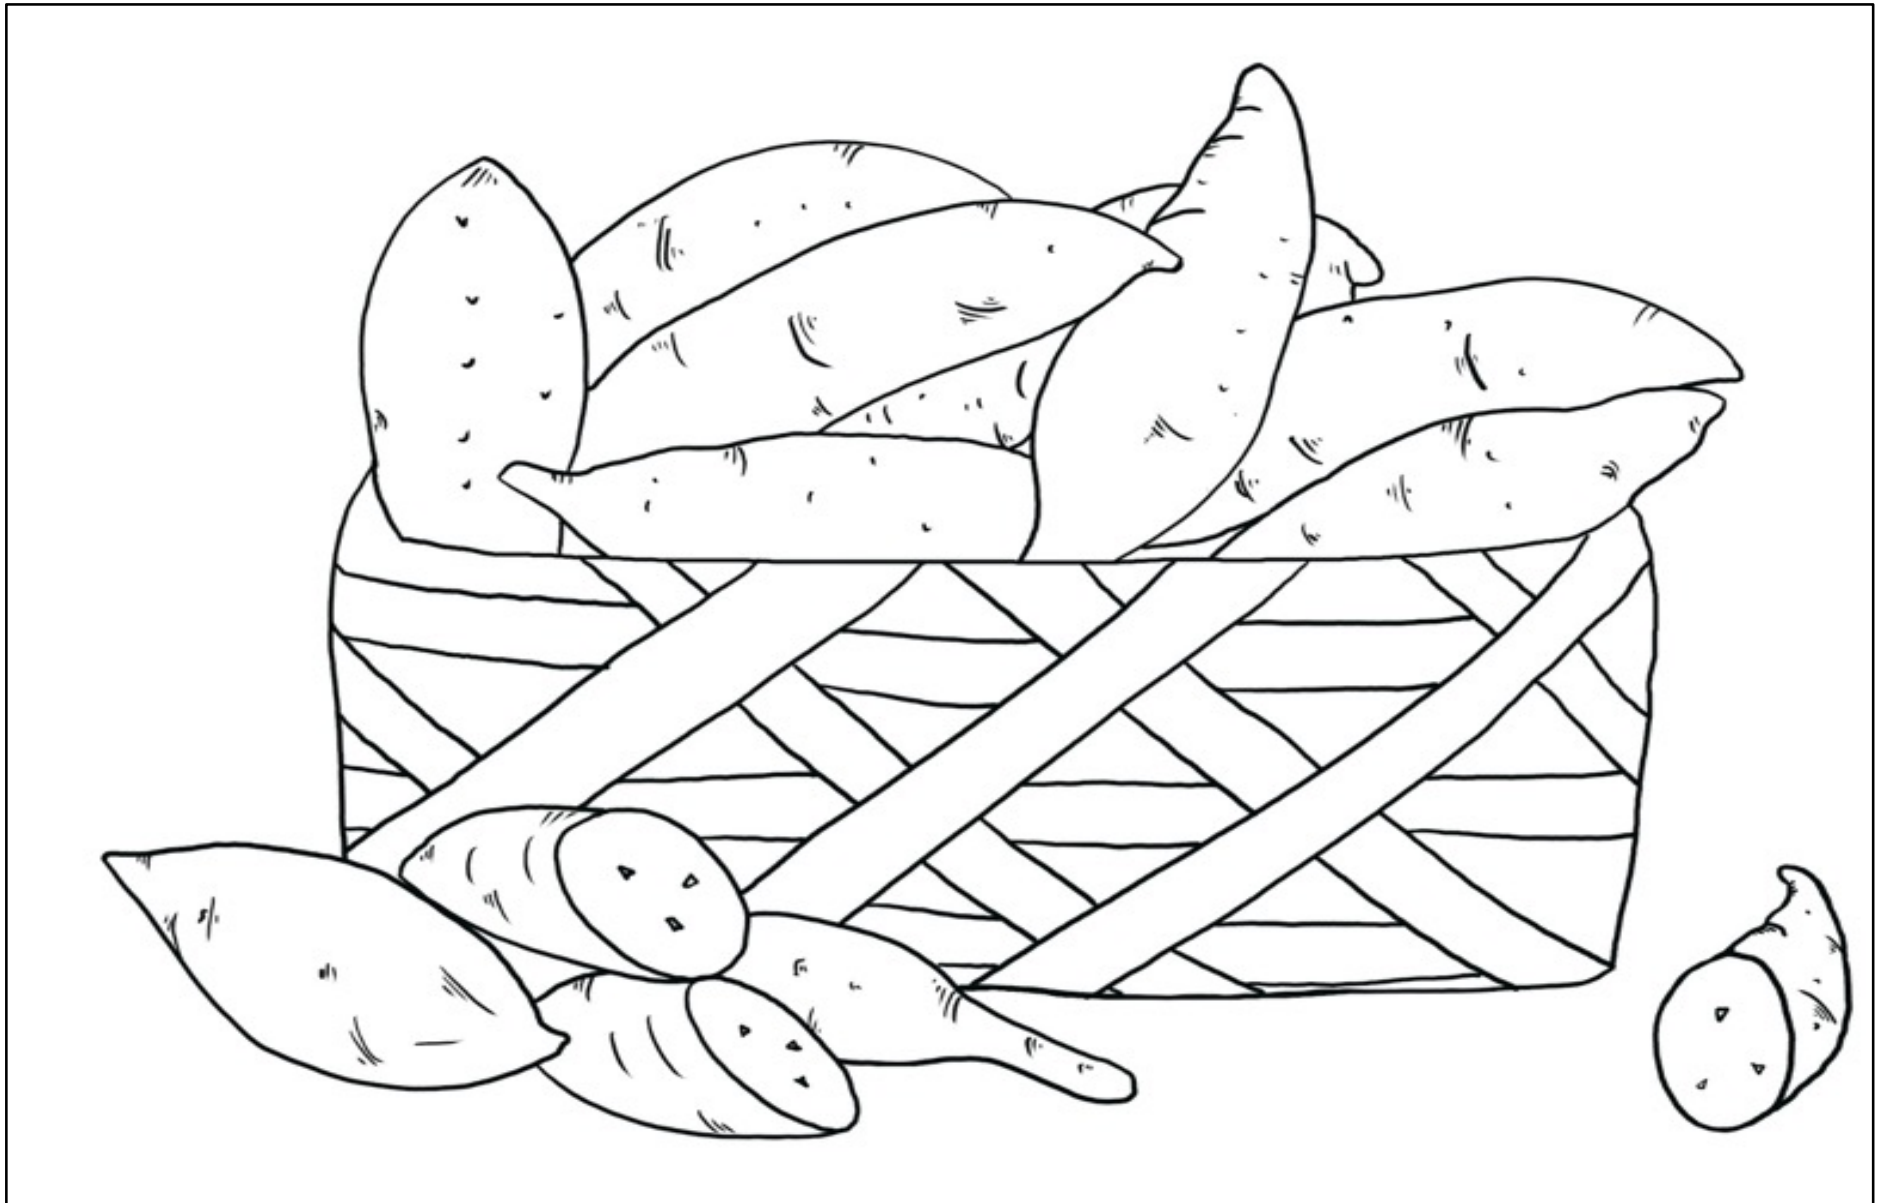

Hine & Tū - Colouring in

Hinerongo has been captured. Although she was taken from Rangitāne Pā by Tūteurutira and his people, she is actually from Ngāti Māmoē. She was only recently captured by Rangitāne and now she's captive again.

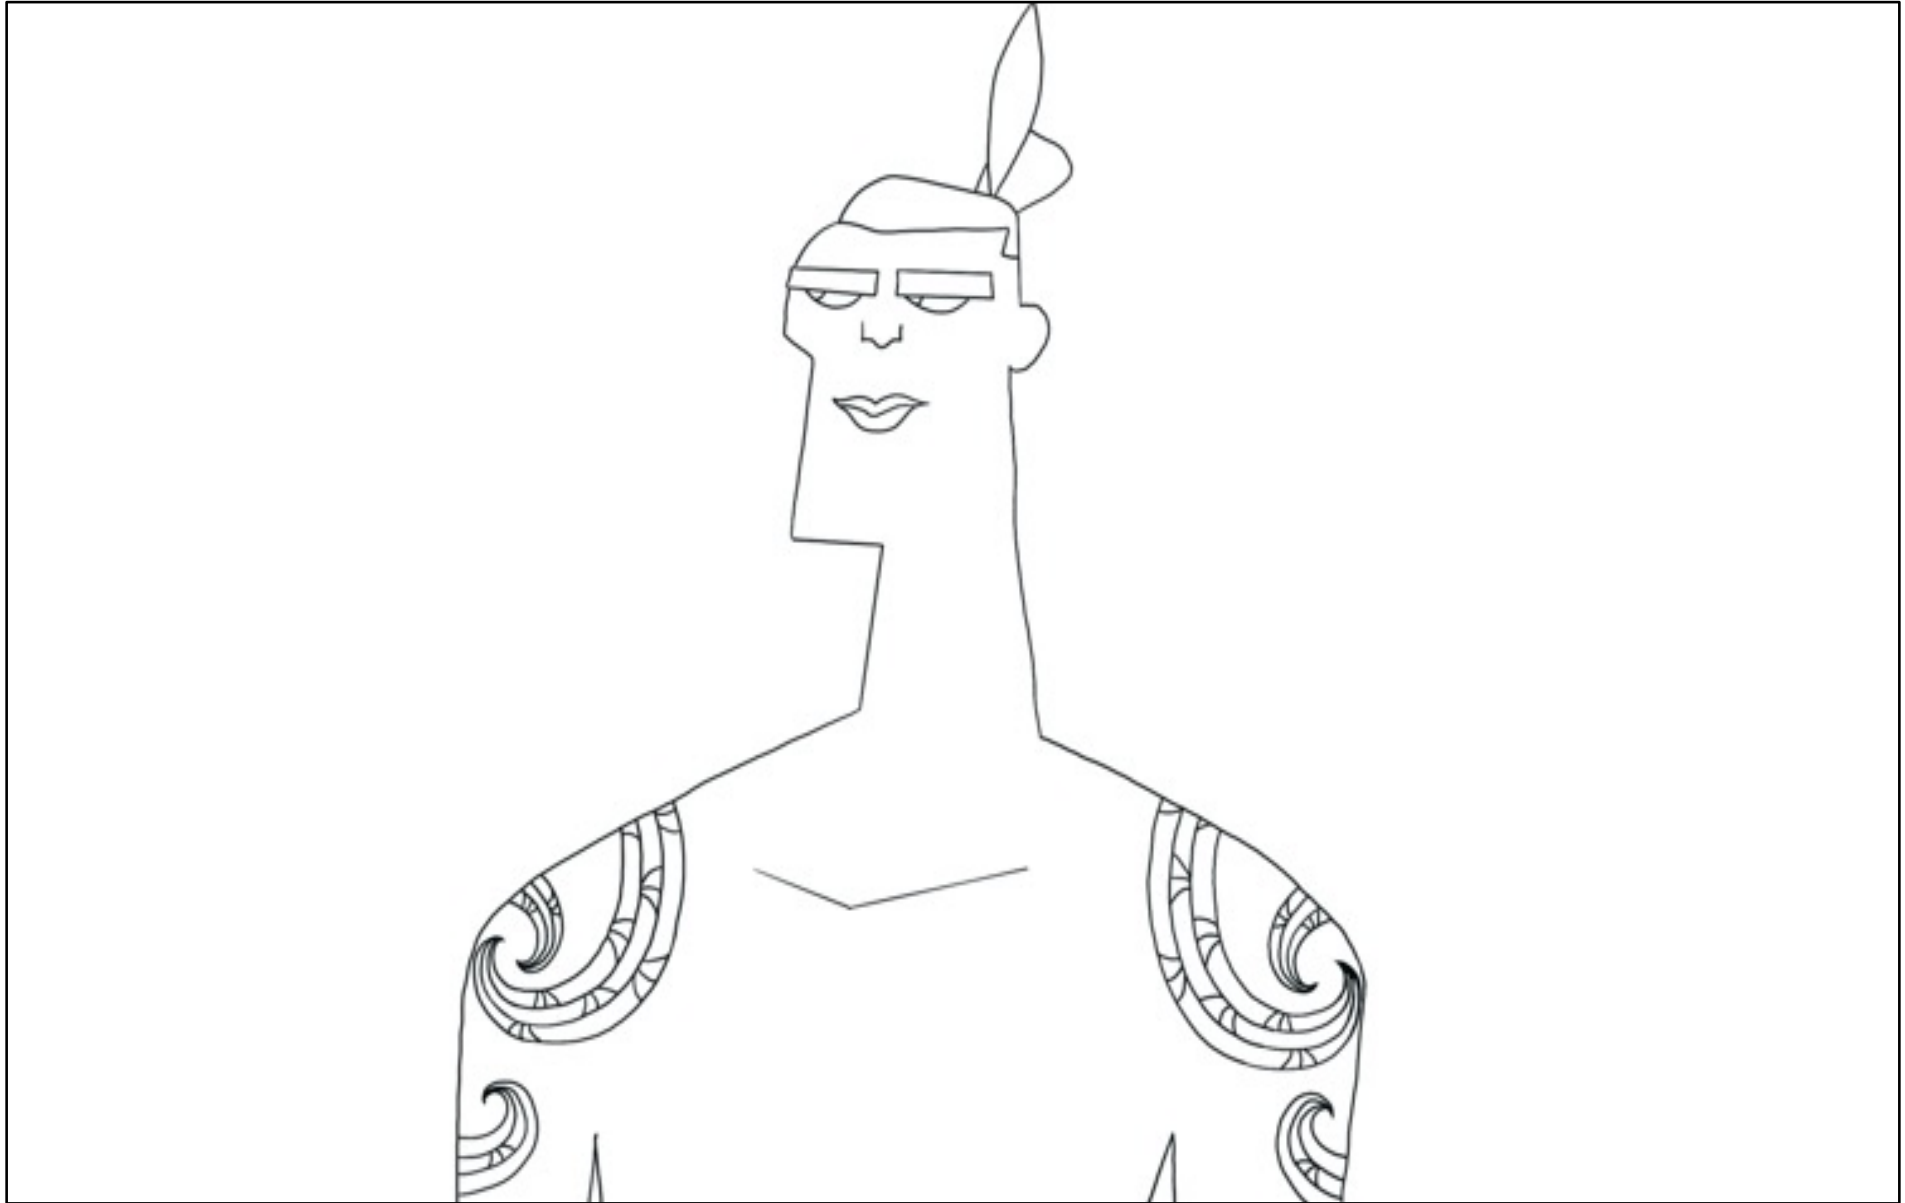

Hine & Tū - Colouring in

Hinerongo and Tūteurutira were given land at the Waiau Toa and they settled at Matariki Pā which was famous for its kūmara gardens. Have you eaten kūmara? Do you like them? What colour will you colour these kūmara?

Hine & Tū - Colouring in

This is Tūteurutira. He is a chief from Ngāti Kurī.
He leads his warriors to battle. Select colours to show his chiefly status.

Hine & Tū - Colouring in

Tūteurutira had heard about Waipapa and the famous cold water spring there. Te Rākaitauheke had told him about a dream he had once that he was swimming in a perfectly clear spring called Haumakariri. Colour in these cold waters. Do you remember your dreams?

Hine & Tū - Colouring in

Tūteurutira and his men got to work immediately, helping Ngāti Māmoē warriors prepare for battle with Rangitāne at Puketāpapa.

Do you take the time to practise/prepare before a big mahi?

Hine & Tū - Colouring in

There was a ferocious battle in which Ngāti Kurī and Ngāti Māmoe were victorious.
How great it is to work together. Who supports you?

