

11. Tiotio and his wife quickly fed Te Huataki and his group. This gesture meant that Te Huataki was now safe and under the protection of Tiotio.
12. Te Rākaitauheke's wives, Rokopare and Tahupare, were not impressed with the way Te Huataki had left.
13. In the morning, Te Huataki met with a host of chiefs. They were happy to see him.
14. Te Huataki told Tiotio that the mountain on the other side of Te Moana o Raukawakawa was Tapuwae o Uenuku and that tītī and weka could be gathered there.
15. There were lots of kāka, tūī, tuna, ika and many types of duck in Te Waipounamu.
16. Kererū grew so big that they couldn't fly away and you could easily catch them on the ground.
17. The leaves of the tikumu were sought after for making kākahu and were used to make rain capes.
18. Ngāti Kurī were thinking about moving somewhere else as they were under pressure from Ngāti Porou.
19. Tiotio asked Te Rākaitauheke how he could cross to that amazing place. Te Rākaitauheke replied by saying, "Nā, he ara mōu. Ko tōku tuarā".
20. Te Huataki's marriage to Tiotio's daughters ensured his safety and allowed Tiotio to lay claim to land in Te Waipounamu.

True	False

Te Huataki - True or False

Are these statements TRUE or FALSE?

1. Te Huataki was a Ngāi Tahu chief living in Wairarapa, Te Whanganui-a-Tara.
2. Te Huataki is the grandson of Tūhaitara.
3. Tiotio's daughters were Māhakinui and Rākaitekura. They were also Te Huataki's wives.
4. Te Huataki was out fishing when he decided to row out to Raukawakawa.
5. It was the gust of wind alone that transported Te Huataki's waka to Te Waipounamu.
6. The people of Rangitāne welcomed Te Huataki to Kahurangi.
7. The people of Rangitāne gave Te Huataki a wife, a place to live and a dog.
8. Te Huataki missed Whātaimai so much, he decided to row back to Te Whanganui-a-Tara.
9. Te Huataki wasn't sure his return home would be well received as he was seen by some as a deserter.
10. Tiotio's wife, Tūraumoā did a karanga to welcome Te Huataki and the others back home.

True	False
	✓
✓
✓
	✓
	✓
✓
	✓
	✓
✓
	✓

11. Tiotio and his wife quickly fed Te Huataki and his group. This gesture meant that Te Huataki was now safe and under the protection of Tiotio.

12. Te Rākaitauheke's wives, Rokopare and Tahupare, were not impressed with the way Te Huataki had left.

13. In the morning, Te Huataki met with a host of chiefs. They were happy to see him.

14. Te Huataki told Tiotio that the mountain on the other side of Raukawakawa was Tapuwae o Uenuku and that tītī and weka could be gathered there.

15. There were lots of kāka, tūī, tuna, ika and many types of duck in Te Waipounamu.

16. Kererū grew so big that they couldn't fly away and you could easily catch them on the ground.

17. The leaves of the tikumu were sought after for making kākahu and were used to make rain capes.

18. Ngāti Kurī were thinking about moving somewhere else as they were under pressure from Ngāti Porou.

19. Tiotio asked Te Rākaitauheke how he could cross to that amazing place. Te Rākaitauheke replied by saying, "Nā, he ara mōu. Ko tōku tuarā".

20. Te Huataki's marriage to Tiotio's daughters ensured his safety and allowed Tiotio to lay claim to land in Te Waipounamu.

True	False
✓
✓
	✓
✓
✓
✓
✓
	✓
	✓
✓

---